High Courts Structure Reform Proposal (2020)

The author wrote this brief after leaving public office as the 6th Chief Justice of Papua New Guinea on the 31st of October 2018. The information contained in this brief are drawn from his experiences as the leader at the forefront of driving the Judiciary's proposal for Court structure reform for close to 20 years, between 1997 and 2018, when he served as the Deputy Chairman of the Judicial Committee on Court Restructure (1997-1999), as Chairman of that Committee (2000-2003), as Deputy Chief Justice (2003-2008) and as Chief Justice (2008-2018).

Price: K250.00

Pathways for Implementing ICAC LAW (2021)

This book contains an overview of the ICAC LAW and offers some observations to guide or assist ICAC in implementing it. Its provisions, as creative and enterprising as they are, have both strengths and weaknesses, some of which have been discussed in this publication. The views expressed in this publication contain preliminary thoughts of the author, gathered from a quick perusal of the ICAC law.

Manual of Judicial Administration (1st Edition) (2009)

This book was written by Sir Salamo Injia in 2009 for judicial administrators of the High Courts. It sets out administration principles and guidelines on the administration of the business of the High Courts to achieve clarity, efficiency and effectiveness, transparency and accountability in the way the High Courts are to deliver on its core judicial functions. The book is believed to be the first of its kind in the Common Law world and has been recommended to Judicial administrators of Pacific judiciaries and other common law jurisdictions.
